

Docent Training

This course is designed to introduce volunteers to Holocaust history (as it is presented in the Dallas Holocaust Museum's permanent exhibit), Museum's design, history, and museum educational methodology so they can join a team of museum-based docents. The course offers a solid foundation in policies, procedures, and touring techniques.

Why become a docent?

- Receive in-depth training in Holocaust and DHM/CET history
- Help educate school and college groups and the public on the Holocaust
- Teach new generations about becoming UPSTANDERS
- Work as a team with other docents and museum education staff

Course Requirements:

- Attendance is mandatory for all sessions.
- Participation is encouraged. Docent training is interactive with multiple opportunities for participants to share their experiences with other trainees and staff.
- Course includes several reading and writing assignments.
- Participants are invited to attend the graduation ceremony on Sunday, June 22, from 1 to 2 pm.
